RULE SUMMARY

This proposed rulemaking implements recent state legislation, chapter 486, Oregon Laws 2007 (Enrolled SB 191), which amends Oregon statutes governing long term care insurance. This legislation enables Oregon consumers to benefit from federal legislation, the Long Term Care Insurance Partnership Act. The rulemaking also proposes additional changes to the rules governing long term care insurance.

The Agency requests public comment on whether other options should be considered for achieving the rule's substantive goals while reducing negative economic impact of the rule on business.
